Press Release: Flood Risk Review Public Workshop Scheduled for December 8
Date of Issue: November 24, 2026

BRONSON, FL- Levy County invites residents, property owners, businesses, and other interested parties to attend a public workshop on Tuesday, December 8, 2026, regarding FEMA's Lower and Upper Suwannee River Watershed Flood Risk Review.

Flood risk information for the area is being reviewed and updated using current data, technology, and science. These updates may affect flood risk information for properties throughout the community. It is important for residents and property owners to understand what information is changing, what it may mean for their property, and where to find reliable resources.

The workshop will provide an opportunity to learn more about the flood mapping review process, understand the proposed updates, review available information, and ask questions. Representatives involved in the Flood Risk Review process will be available to provide information and answer general questions.

MEETING DETAILS
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2026
Time: 5:00 PM – 7:00 PM
Location: Levy County Government Center Cafeteria
310 School Street, Bronson, FL 32621

Residents are encouraged to attend and take advantage of this opportunity to learn more about the flood risk review and how updated flood risk information may affect their community.
